

Welcome to the AG Corps Print (“Washington’s Watch Chain”) Purchasing Site! Please ensure you read the notes below before proceeding. Prints are going quickly, get yours while you can! Click here for the official announcement and for more detailed information about the print.

Click below to download the detailed AG Corps Print Narrative and Brochure :

AG Corps Print - Historical Narrative \(70\)

AG Corps Print - Brochure \(71\)

AGCRA has also commissioned 750 limited edition prints and 300 giclees of the original oil painting to be sold to the general public for the purpose of raising funds for an AGCRA Scholarship Program (Note – giclees more closely resemble the original oil painting). The limited edition prints and giclees can only be purchased below, via our online order form. Costs for the limited edition prints (framed and unframed) and giclees are provided below.

NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

- AG Corps prints will be available for pick-up at the Radisson Hotel, Columbia, SC on June 11, 2011, or for shipping on June 13, 2011.
- All sales are final, there will be no returns, unless the print is damaged during shipping.
- AGCRA will attempt to replace prints damaged during shipping, but cannot guarantee a replacement print based on availability of this limited edition series.
- If damaged shipped prints cannot be replaced, the customer will be refunded their order in full.
- All damaged “limited edition prints” must be returned to the shipper below in order to get a replacement print or refund (address listed at bottom of this page).
- Mort Kunstler, Inc. is responsible for the shipment of “giclees”. Giclees damaged during shipping must be returned to the shipper designated by Mort Kunstler, Inc.
- Shipping to a P.O. Box is NOT available – physical addresses only.